

SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES & CULTURE

Established in 2012, the School of Languages & Culture (SOLC) is the epicentre of cultural, creative and academic activity at Sharda University with students from all over the world enriching our learning environment.

The School offers languages, literature, linguistics, and cultural studies. SOLC's strength lies in its offerings of classes in languages for specialised purposes. These classes equip the students with the practical communication skills they will need for using the target language while preparing for globally oriented career paths.

We offer a wide range of language studies in English, French, German and Hindi. Graduates with language skills and a good understanding of other cultures are in demand both in India and overseas. Our programmes will provide the students with an excellent competitive advantage for a range of government and private-sector jobs, while the experience will expand their horizons and introduce them to people, places, cultures and ideas that can change their way of looking at the world around them. We have a multi-cultural environment with a vibrant network of International students, which constitute 40% of the strength and thus providing a cultural diversity for classroom discussions. SOLC faculty members cover a richly diverse range of research areas and have received prestigious teaching awards for their performance in the classroom. The School offers a variety of courses, which have been designed according to CEFR levels (Common European Framework for Reference).

The School offers innovative programmes in various specialisations:

- B.A. (Hons.) - English
- B.Sc. - Yoga
- M.A. - English
- Diploma in Foreign Language (German, French, English, Hindi)
- Certification in Foreign Language (German, French, English, Hindi)

Teaching today has entered the era of MALL - Mobile Assisted Language Learning. The concept of Networked Teacher is also on the rise. This Conference will focus on these two aspects of teaching.

NextGen APPROACHES OF ELT

In teaching-learning process the students were considered as "blank slates, empty vessels, wet clay" whose primary role was to submissively accept the information through lectures.

The teachers were considered as "writer of the slate, storehouse of knowledge, moulder of the shape" whose primary role was to pass knowledge and information onto their students. This model of teaching and learning was totally based on assessment of the students by the teachers.

Now, the concept of a sage on the stage has been transformed to a networked teacher due to the nexus of networks, and it has become an art which can be always improved or enhanced by imbibing new and creative ideas. We have accepted language learning through Computers which has been changed into Mobile assisted language learning, popularly known as MALL. This Conference will open many vistas in the field of ELT.

SUB-THEMES OF THE CONFERENCE

- Standards-driven approach to teaching and learning of English
